4. PERSONNEL MOVEMENTS

Consolidated headcount as of the 30.09.2021 and 31.12.2020 are 34,619 and 34,748 respectively.

5. FINANCIAL RISK MANAGEMENT

Türk Telekom is exposed to financial risks such as liquidity risk, currency risk, interest rate risk, and counterparty risk.

Within the framework of the strategy of minimizing liquidity risk, financial debt is obtained from different geographical regions (the Americas, Europe, the Gulf, Japan, China, and Turkey) and from a diversified pool of investors (commercial banks, international financial institutions, official export credit agencies, and bond markets) with long-term maturities. This strategy enables the Group to have access to long-term financing on competitive terms, without being dependent on a limited group of funding sources.

With regard to the Eurobonds issued by Türk Telekom, the Group actively monitors the price and return dynamics of these bonds, which are tradeable instruments in the secondary markets, in order to ensure optimal cash management strategies on total return and cost basis.

The need to procure some part of capital expenditures from foreign suppliers and finance through long-term and diversified funding sources cause Türk Telekom to carry liabilities in foreign currency. Hence, excluding the hedge transactions, Türk Telekom has net liabilities in foreign currency and is exposed to FX risk due to the fluctuations in exchange rates, which may have an impact on the financial statements.

By way of FX risk management transactions, Türk Telekom keeps the impact of FX exposure on the financial statements at minimal level. In this respect Türk Telekom has a total hedge position of USD 1,977¹ million equivalent, details of which are provided in the footnotes to its financial statements. The hedge position including Net Investment Hedge and cash assets in hard currency in order to provide a natural hedge against FX exposure is USD 2,515 million equivalent.

In relation to interest rate risk, Türk Telekom carries an interest-rate swap position equivalent to USD 450 million, details of which are provided in the footnotes to the financial statements. Türk Telekom minimizes its exposure to the interest rate risk through those swap positions a fixed-interest rate financing transactions such as Eurobond.

With regards to its financial assets, Türk Telekom maintains a position with the purpose of minimizing counterparty risk in accordance with the framework of the counterparty limits and diversification policy. Türk Telekom carries out its hedge transactions regarding financial risks within the framework of the guidance and authorisation set by the Board of Directors.

¹ It is the hedge position established with the consideration of all the financial and commercial liabilities having FX risk impact on the consolidated profit and loss statement.

09 August 2021 dated Regulatory Disclosure - Guidance Revision for 2021 Consolidated Financial Results

We recorded higher than expected top-line growth and EBITDA in the second quarter of the year with a better contribution of mobile segment in particular. Other businesses also performed slightly better compared to our expectations. First half performance, alongside an improved outlook for the second half of the year, justifies another upward revision to our 2021 guidance.

While the change in EBITDA is driven by improved top-line and opex outlook, the revised capex figure reflects the FX impact as well as the urge to undertake additional mobile and fixed broadband investments in response to persistently vigorous demand to telecommunication services.

Our investments will continue to focus on expanding and improving our fixed/mobile networks, capacity increases, digital agenda, data centres and 5G transition and support our growth in the coming years.

Our revised guidance for 2021 is as below

- Consolidated revenue growth (excluding IFRIC 12) to be around 17% over 2020
- Consolidated EBITDA to be around TL 15.8 billion
- Consolidated CAPEX to be around TL 8.5 billion

	Previous Guidance	Revised Guidance
